Piper Toyota cams

Piper is now offering track- and race-profile camshafts for the Toyota Celica 1.8 VVT-Li 190bhp engine. As standard, the 1.8 VVT-Li engine suffers from a dip in the torque curve. Piper says it has developed the cams to cure this problem and give a constant torque curve throughout the rev band.

BP285 and BP320 profiles are available. The 285 is for track-use engines that have standalone management, while the 320 is for full-race track-use-only engines. (For road and occasional track use, Piper BP270 fast road cams are also available).

The cams are CNC-profiled from chill-cast blanks and retail at £530.00 plus VAT for a pair. For details, contact Piper on 01303 245300 or visit www.pipercams.co.uk

Drivedata video recorder

Drivedata is an independent designer and manufacturer of professional video and data recording systems, supplying a number of teams in F1, WTCC and GT. It's just launched a new Digital Video Recorder, the Drivedata DR2, to record your trackday or race action.

It uses solid-state recorder technology and has MPG/AVI recording capability at the maximum resolution of 720x576 at 25fps. The DR2 has the option to record in two formats – MPEG2 for DVD and MPEG4 for web applications and video streaming.

It can record directly on to a compact flashcard, and at the highest quality setting can record over two hours of footage on an 8GB flashcard. It can be bundled with an extensive range of cameras, camera mounts, remote controls and other accessories. Priced at £625, it's available via selected stockists, at www.drivedata.com, or by calling 08707 607044.
